July 2026

Dear Member

On Thursday 16th July, Down South Jazz Club is delighted to bring back to the stage of Club Sapphire “The Sweet Patooties”. Bonnie Kay and the Sweet Patooties are a dynamic all-female band fronted by the captivating vocalist Bonnie Kay on lead vocals and guitar. She is joined once again by Carolyn Packer on vocals and keyboard; Claire Hollander on backing vocals and trumpet, Catherine Golden on vocals and bass and a change of drummer this time with Naomi Smith.

These ladies don't just play together - they sparkle together. Their musical chemistry, rich harmonies (sometimes in four parts), and infectious camaraderie make every performance a joyful and uplifting experience.

Over the past three years, this talented group has been performing regularly across Sydney's clubs and pubs, as well as appearing at a variety of festivals and concerts including The Thredbo Blues Festival, The Newcastle Jazz Festival, The Kangaroo Valley Folk Festival, Blue Mountains Folk Festival and Marrickville Street Festival.

Now nearing completion of their debut album, featuring mostly original material, the Sweet Patooties deliver a vibrant blend of styles. Their repertoire ranges from the sassy, bawdy blues and jazz of the 1920s and '30s to the rockabilly, swing, and country sounds of the '40s, '50s, and '60s, with a few surprises beyond.

The Sweet Patooties are a fun, inspiring, and immensely talented group of women who bring heart and soul to every stage they grace.

This immensely entertaining evening of jazz will cost $20 for jazz club members and $25 for visitors with music commencing at 7.30 pm (doors open at 7 pm). Bookings can be made by sending an email to bookings@downsouthjazzclub.org.au or using the form on the WhatsOn page on our web site. You can also call Pam or George on 0479 065 590
